

Themes, per. 7

Money can be an obstacle to achieving your dreams.

Women are not treated fairly and equally.

Women have a hard time in society because they're only judged by looks.

People with a different culture can find it hard to be accepted.

It's difficult to be a religion that's unique to the place you're in.

People have a hard time adjusting to changing finances.

Lots to do and very little time.

The pressure society puts on males to be the main family support.

It's hard for African Americans to support their families with a lot of societal racism against them

People work so hard to live that they barely have time for dates or family.

Discrimination is a big issue.

Lots of pressure just to achieve a little plan.

Conflicting dreams get in the way of relationships.

Desperation of parents trying to help their children.

Stubbornness and pride can get in the way of allowing yourself to get help.

Choosing between family members is nearly impossible.

Sometimes you have to put family first.

Racial inequality.

Not having opportunities is frustrating.

Frustration can break people down.

Need for power

Independence needs dependence.

Good leaders are frustrated when they can't help everyone that they lead.

Themes, per. 2

Money has an outsize effect on lives.

Change across economic status is difficult.

Being a father is high-pressure.

Men need emotional support too.

Expectations of men are toxic.

Poverty is hard to escape and has a huge impact.

A new start sometimes feels like the only escape.

Outside pressures can ruin relationships.

We all want our lives to have meaning.

Social pressure can prevent people from doing what they want.

It can be hard to come of age.

Segregation: people don't want to change, brave people force change.

Push your loved ones to achieve their dreams.

Sacrifice for others.

Lack of judgement can lead to disaster.

To fulfill dreams you need financial freedom.

Rising against both racism & sexism is rough.

Embracing your culture can stop an oppressive culture from erasing you.

Sometimes people who should be natural allies can get in your way.